

July 10, 2021

Dear Artist:

It is my pleasure to invite you to submit your intent to participate in the upcoming annual exhibits presented by Centro Cultural Aztlan. This year's fall programming will consist of:

- 44th Annual Dia de los Muertos on November 2 through November 5, 2021.
- 25th Annual Zonarte - El Mercado de Aztlan from November 19, 20 & 21, 2021.
- 26th Annual Virgen de Guadalupe exhibit, December 12, 2021 – Jan. 14, 2022.

Please review the entry requirements for El Dia de los Muertos, only Altares and Ofrendas will be displayed in the gallery, not artwork by itself. However, you may use artwork as part of your altar. If you intent to participate as a vendor in our "Avenida de los Muertos" during the Dia de los Muertos celebration, as well as Virgen de Guadalupe opening night, please fill out the applications and check the "vendor" box at the top of the applications, or both if you intent to be vendor and have a piece in the gallery also.

All entries will be considered; however, we cannot guarantee your acceptance to any exhibit. All applications undergo a selection process to ensure the notifications of acceptance will be delivered on or before the specified dates on the applications.

We request that you return the enclosed applications, photos, and narratives for Altars to Centro Cultural Aztlan no later than Monday, September 13, 2021, to ensure your intent to participate and to be included in all promotional materials. Final decisions will be made once artwork has been delivered. Due to the high volume of entries late submissions will not be accepted. Please refer to the agreements for drop-off deadlines or installation dates. Please note the exhibit times are subject to change.

We look forward to working with you again this year and helping us make these annual events a huge success. If you have any questions, please email Ruth Guajardo at centroaztlan@sbcglobal.net or call us at 210-432-1896.

Sincerely,

Malena Gonzalez-Cid
